Setsu told me to come with him. I was about to run away from home, because my guardians who were raising me were about to send me to an orphanage. Since I'll be killed at the orphanage because I look like a vampire...

Meanwhile,
I shall teach you
about this "place".

If you wander
around the streets
in your current style... You'll—

Get eaten
right away.

Perhaps you, who has never crossed the "gap", might have noticed it, but this place is similar to the "outer world" where humans live, though it is a separate, different world.

The "gap" you were talking is the "gate" only a few of them, with special blood, can see. It is the passage that connects the two worlds.

Of course, normal people don't even know of its existence and even if they did, it is nothing more than a theory.

It was probably forgotten since the "gate" itself is hidden and there is no real need to go outside of, or into the human world.

Well, even if they were to go to the fantasy world, this ally's wings have somehow become more vulnerable to the common weaknesses such as sunlight, or sleep. Now they were helping.

So nobody ventures outside anymore with the risk of dying

From the looks of it, Setsu was so curious, he put his life on the line to play with you.

I see... So Setsu risked his life to meet me...

A digital illustration of a sunset scene. The sky is filled with vibrant orange and yellow clouds. In the bottom right corner, the roof and upper part of a white house with a dark brown roof are visible. A string of green ivy hangs down the side of the house. In the center-left of the image, there is a large, white, oval-shaped speech bubble with a thin black outline. Inside the bubble, the text "Angela's search" and "Are you home?" is written in a black, serif font.

Labeled as a vampire and abandoned by his father in the human world, Lark lived in his relative's home.

But even there, his life of misfortune continued as he was treated as an ill-omered child.

One night, he encountered a strange boy named Setz.

Lark got along with Setz, who treated him as a friend for the first time. Their friendship grew

*But the good times
were short lived as the bullying that may start again*

Lead him into the world he was living in 'The world of Vampires'

However, by his father's order, Setz went to the male house and left Lark behind

Left alone, Lark lived in Angela's house. He learned from her and made new friends while waiting for Setz.

*Alchemist, Setz, met

The vampires of this world exist in a static state.

Um, I-I was...

Considering what happened to Neal, it will be difficult if you act however you want.

Be good and return to your dormitory.

Setz is also in a static state.

Setz...

I'm sorry.

*Want to see
you smile...*

- Chapter 20 -

In the beginning of time, mankind existed alongside a race of evil spirits known as "demons."

SUCCUBUS/INCUBUS

They had no regard for gender, were extremely attractive, and specialized in the fields of magic and the occult.

WEREWOLFS

They had exceptional speed and accuracy and could transform into half-beasts.

GHOSTS

Characterized by their quiet and temperate personalities, they possessed the unique ability to "mistify" (turn into a mist-like state). Though they had inferior physical capabilities (combat power), they were the most intelligent race.

ZOMBIES

Possessing most of the traits of an immortal, their physical abilities were excellent. However, they were poor in magic and low in intelligence.

And then there were pure-blooded vampires, the epitome of the vampiric race.

*Vampires are a different race that is greatly superior
to humans.*

Because of this, they tried to rule over the humans, and the humans came to suppress demons under the name of God.

In this conflict, the vampires were split into two factions:

*The hard-liners,
who rallied to fight against the humans...*

And the moderates, who advocated the creation of their own world and the severing of all contact with humans.

Mobilizing all of their power the moderates...

cast a seal on an old castle somewhere deep within the mountains of England and constructed a world inside.

...That was Crepuscule.

The world that we're presently
living in.

There's no
sunlight here, and the artificial light
doesn't cause harm
to vampires

Furthermore, you won't become hungry from not drinking blood!

*Amazing...
They created a world?*

It's no wonder that this place feels different from the one where humans live...

But how were they able to create a world?

*However...
In return...*

*Succubi and incubi
could no longer enter
dreams,*

*Werewolves became permanently
half-beast,*

*The bodies of ghosts
became solid,*

Zombies would sometimes decompose and disappear.

...And most of the purebloods, excluding the elders and various first generations, vanished. Their bloodlines faded.

The majority of vampires in Crepuscule mixed their blood with different races.

The blood of those races became obscured by the vampire's thick blood.
Though once distinct, these foreign characteristics became imperceptible.

For this reason, the "demons" were renamed "vampires" by elders and high-ranking nobles.

...that is the present
world.

Crepuscule.

.....

Excuse me—

Which race are you,
saonsaeng-nim?

Ma? I'm an incubus- Haha

That's why your teacher's so pretty!

Slide

Hey,

Be quiet...

He is the head of security of this school!

It seems he's been close to Oliver-sansaengnam since long
ago, but...
They're so casual
with each other

There's also a head of security?!

..Ah- For that reason, today's
class will end
here.

Then, everyone
stay on top of things, and I'll see
you next time!

Was it really a good idea...

To enroll in this school...?

I should just quickly find the item Angela-san told me about and return home, but...

I don't know what that thing is at all. Man, I see a long and winding road ahead...

huh?

SFX: Snore<sup>TM</sup>

Sleeping again...?

Should I
wake him up?

He used to talk about the location.

Mm...

P. .Perhaps next time, haha...

I don't want him getting mad at me for disturbing his sleep. ♪

A girl?

Who is she?
